SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

On Friday night deputies responded to a North Auburn intersection on the report of a fight. When they arrived they found a local resident lying on the ground in a pool of blood, the apparent victim of a stabbing.

On April 8 at 8:45 PM, Placer County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the intersection of Galena Drive and Garnet Way on the report of a fight. When they arrived, they found Jason Paul Teubner, 27, a local resident, lying in the intersection. He was bleeding from numerous stab wounds to his head and neck. Teubner was airlifted to Sutter Roseville Medical Center where he underwent surgery for his wounds. Teubner is expected to survive.

The investigation has revealed the suspect to be Derrick Raymond Brister, 24, of the Auburn area. Brister is described as a white male, 6'7", 250 Lbs., with a shaved head and blue eyes. Brister is considered armed and dangerous. A warrant is being sought for his arrest and Sheriff's Department personnel are actively looking for him.

Derrick Brister

Anyone with information on Brister's whereabouts should call their local law enforcement agency or Placer County Sheriff's Detective Bill Summers at 530-889-7843.
